

A large, stylized illustration of the word "APPLE" repeated in red and yellow, forming a circular pattern. The word is written in a bold, sans-serif font, with each letter having a thick stroke. The letters are arranged in concentric circles, creating a sense of motion or a spiral. The colors used are various shades of red for the top half and yellow for the bottom half, with some letters having a darker shade as if they are in shadow. The overall effect is dynamic and eye-catching.
